Obituary

Eugenia Marie Miller was born July 18, 1944 in Oakland, California. Eugenia was called Jeannie by her friends and family. Jeannie was the first of six children born to Eugene and Glorious Miller.

Sister Emerson joined Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church in the early 1960's. Jeannie was baptized by the late Reverend C. E. Richardson. She was a faithful member of the Mass Choir. She was famous for her Communion Song with the lyrics "I Know It Was the Blood". She loved gospel music and loved singing in the choir. In the past, she served as the Mass Choir President. Jeannie also enjoyed meeting with a group at church she referred to as Angels. She sang with Richmond's Local Number Ten under the choir direction of Jessie McDaniel. Jeannie's favorite night of the week was Thursday night Choir Rehearsal.

She attended school in the Berkeley and Richmond Unified School Districts. She was a good student and was involved in various extracurricular activities. Eugenia graduated from Richmond High School in 1961. She continued her education at Contra Costa Junior College, She was a Red Cross Candy Striper, and later became a cheerleader. She received an A.A Degree. Later on she earned a B. A. Degree from John F. Kennedy University. Jeannie truly valued education. Her social life was very full. Jeannie participated as a member of the YWCA Les Amies. As a teenager, Jeannie enjoyed being a member of the Uniques Social Club of Richmond.

Jeannie was employed by Pacific Bell in California and Texas. She retired from the Richmond Public Library. After retiring, she worked part-time for the Richmond Unified School District.

She loved being around people. She participated with the retired members of the SEIU Union. Her favorite times were shared with The Girlfriends of the Class of 1961. In her leisure time, she designed and created fashions. She also loved going to lunch and eating out.

Eugenia Marie Emerson departed this life on August 28, 2017.

Eugenia was preceded in death by her husband, O. C. Emerson, parents, Eugene and Glorious Miller. She is survived by her sons, Buford Powers Jr., Michael Powers and John Watson all of Richmond, California. Sister Emerson is survived by, ten grandchildren, four great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
